Office of the City Manager

To All Police and Fire Game participants:

On behalf of the City of Carrollton, Georgia, it is my great pleasure to welcome you to our city to participate in the 2005 Georgia Police and Fire Games. As a Fire Chief prior to my present position, I can tell you firsthand the significance of this event in promoting physical fitness, friendships, sportsmanship, goodwill, and camaraderie among public safety professionals. We fulfill this mission by promoting participation in athletic competition by all members of the law enforcement and fire service communities throughout the state.

The Georgia Police and Fire Games continue to be a showcase for law enforcement and fire service personnel from across the state to test their skills in athletic competition among their peers. Since its conception, the Games have grown in size, popularity, and in prestige, so that today the event attracts hundreds of first-class competitors in various sports from throughout the state. Carrollton is honored to host an event that has become one of the biggest, and most high profile of its kind anywhere.

Let me assure you that every effort will be made to ensure your visit to Carrollton is comfortable, convenient, and enjoyable. We believe you will find Carrollton's staff of recreation specialists, its impressive facilities, and our hospitable community to be the best among those Georgia has to offer. I am certain your experience in Carrollton will be memorable. I wish you the best of luck.

Sincerely,
